

Develop Proximity Management

Collaborative and interactive workshop to support and develop Proximity Managers in their ability to drive their team to success.

Build your own developmental roadmap as a manager

Learn and reflect on your own managerial experience with others managers in a safe and opened environment. Not only you will learn about the basics of Proximity Management but you will develop as well a strong network of managers to refer on the future.

1

INSPIRE AND ENGAGE

Lead by example, build and inspire trust, motivate the team and recognise the team

2

DRIVE RESULTS

Situational Managerial style, empower your team, powerful one-to-one meetings, prioritise tasks

3

DEVELOP YOUR TEAM

Develop your team members, practice giving developmental feedback, lead as a coach

19- 20 FEB. 19

Two-days public workshop / Sydney CBD

9:00 - 5:00 pm

Target Audience

New managers (from all sectors) wanting to acquire useful practical skills for immediate application in their workplace.

Investment

1,400 $

Early bird : 1,250$ (enroll before 31st Dec. 18)

Sophie Derand (Shake you up) & Aleth Doat (Talenteos) are both running a consultancy practice specialised in individual and collective behaviours change. They are both coaches and facilitators empowering executives and professional to lead effectively and leverage limitless potential.